

ASD Nest Support Project 2018-19 Support Packages

The New York City Department of Education provides the funding for Nest schools to receive:

- Five on-site ASD Leadership meetings per year with principal and DoE liaison
- Two days per year of on-site expert consultation (six additional visits for first & second year schools; three additional visits for third year schools)
- Facilitation of ASD Nest pre-service staff training at Hunter College and NYU
- Discipline-specific training for all Nest staff:
  - One workshop (Kickoff) for all Nest staff, including administrators
  - Five workshops for speech & language pathologists
  - Four workshops for occupational/physical therapists
  - Four workshops for social workers/guidance counselors
  - One workshop for ASD cluster teachers
  - Four-day summer training for new SLPs on SDI
- Workshops with broadly-applicable content to be turn-keyed at each school:
  - Nine seats at over 10 diverse “Nest Practices” workshops, leveled by staff experience
  - One seat at a fall off-site workshop with an “illustrious professional” in the field
  - Five seats at spring workshop with “illustrious professional” in the field
- Parent support program:
  - Two in-school new parent workshops at most elementary schools (SDI and behavior)
  - Two evening parent workshops at NYU on topics of parent interest
  - Parent newsletter (20+ newsletters for families new to Nest; 10 in subsequent years)
  - Web site with videos of all past NYU Nest parent workshops
- Middle School/High School Task Force Seminars: One or more teachers per school
- Public web site with useful Nest information for staff, parents, and the public; password-protected website for all Nest staff to access all Nest landmark documents; password-protected “Principals Page” with access to additional Nest resources for administrators

In addition, schools may purchase a support package:
